

Disciplinary and Other NASD Actions

REPORTED FOR AUGUST

NASD® has taken disciplinary actions against the following firms and individuals for violations of NASD rules; federal securities laws, rules, and regulations; and the rules of the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board (MSRB). The information relating to matters contained in this Notice is current as of the end of July 2003.

Firm Expelled, Individual Sanctioned

Key West Securities, Inc. (CRD #38305, Cardiff by the Sea, California) and Amr "Tony" Elgindy (CRD #1824634, Registered Representative, Colleyville, Texas) were fined $51,000, jointly and severally. Elgindy was barred from association with any NASD member in any capacity, and the firm was expelled from NASD membership. The National Adjudicatory Council (NAC) imposed the sanctions following appeal of an Office of Hearing Officers (OHO) decision. The sanctions were based on findings that the firm and Elgindy engaged in a manipulation scheme when Elgindy posted artificially high bids that were designed to inflate the price of a stock. The firm and Elgindy also inserted high bids without intending to honor them. In addition, the firm and Elgindy failed to disclose that the firm was making a market in a security or that it would sell to, or buy from, customers on a principal basis.

Elgindy and the firm have appealed this action to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). The sanctions, except for the bar and expulsion, are not in effect pending consideration of the appeal. (NASD Case #CMS000015)

Firm Suspended

Schneider Securities, Inc. (CRD #16434, Denver Colorado) submitted an Offer of Settlement in which the firm was suspended from all trading activities for two years. In light of the financial status of the firm, no monetary sanctions have been imposed. Without admitting or denying the allegations, the firm consented to the described sanction and to the entry of findings that it transmitted to the NASDAQ Stock Market, Inc., through the Automated Confirmation Transaction ServiceSM (ACTSM), last-sale reports of fictitious transactions in a NASDAQ National Market® (NNM) security. The findings also stated that the firm reported these fictitious transactions in an NNM security with the intent to cause the market for the stock to attain a higher price. NASD also found that the firm engaged in a manipulative, deceptive, and/or fraudulent conduct by intentionally or recklessly causing to be reported to the NASDAQ Stock Market, Inc., last-sale reports of transactions in a common stock for the purpose of affecting the price in the security. In addition, NASD found that the firm published and circulated, or caused to be published and circulated, communications through last-sale reports to ACT of fictitious transactions in a common stock that the firm did not believe were bona fide purchases or sales. Furthermore, the findings stated that the firm failed to establish, maintain, or enforce procedures reasonably designed to ensure that it reported only bona fide transactions in the last-sale reports it reported to the NASDAQ Stock Market, Inc., through ACT. The findings also included that the firm failed to have in place procedures to adequately review trades reported to ACT, or to ensure that its employee did not report fictitious trades to ACT.

The firm's suspension began July 21, 2003, and will conclude at the close of business July 20, 2005. (NASD Case #CMS030001)

Firm Expelled, Individual Sanctioned

Patterson Travis, Inc. (CRD #16540, Englewood, Colorado) and David Thomas Travis (CRD #448950, Registered Principal, Aurora, Colorado) The firm was fined $50,000 and expelled from NASD membership, and Travis was fined $50,000 and barred from association with any NASD member in any capacity. The sanctions were based on findings that the firm, acting through Travis, contravened SEC Rules 15g-2, 15g-3, and 15g-5, in that prior to effecting transactions in a penny stock for the accounts of public customers, the firm did not furnish to the customers a penny stock transactions risk disclosure statement and did not obtain from the customers a manually signed and dated written acknowledgement of receipt of the document. The findings also stated that the firm, acting through Travis, prior to effecting transactions in a penny stock for customers' accounts or in writing at the time of confirmation, did not disclose to customers the inside bid quotation and the inside offer quotation for the penny stock, and did not disclose to customers the aggregate amount of cash compensation to its associated persons in connection with these transactions.

In addition, the findings stated that the firm did not obtain a written agreement setting forth the identity and quantity of a penny stock to be purchased and a signed and dated written statement from each purchaser relating to the purchaser's financial condition, investment experience, and investment objectives. NASD found that the firm, acting through Travis, failed to supervise properly the sale of a penny stock by registered representatives to achieve compliance with applicable securities laws, regulations, and NASD rules. Furthermore, NASD found that the firm and Travis attempted to conceal their violation of the penny stock rules and to obstruct an NASD investigation. In addition, NASD found that the firm and Travis failed to comply with the terms of an Order of Settlement that involved, among other things, violations of the Penny Stock Rules. (NASD Case #C06020003)

Firms Fined, Individuals Sanctioned

American Heritage Church Finance, Inc. (CRD #18285, Orlando, Florida) and Bryant Forrest Thompson (CRD #1127521, Registered Principal, Orlando, Florida) submitted a Letter of Acceptance, Waiver, and Consent in which the firm was censured and fined $40,000, of which $25,000 was assessed jointly and severally with Thompson. Thompson was also suspended from association with any NASD member in any capacity for 90 days. Without admitting or denying the allegations, the firm and Thompson consented to the described sanctions and to the entry of findings that the firm participated in church bond offerings wherein pursuant to the offering materials, funds received from the sale of the church bonds would be placed in an escrow account and not be released until a minimum contingency was met. The findings also stated that the firm, acting through Thompson, caused funds to be released from the escrow account before the minimum contingency was reached, thereby rendering the representations in the offering materials false. NASD also found that the firm, acting through Thompson, failed to ensure that customer records contained information required by NASD Conduct Rule 3110c. In addition, NASD found that the firm, acting through Thompson, failed to establish, maintain, and enforce a supervisory system reasonably designed to achieve compliance with SEC and NASD rules.

Thompson's suspension began July 21, 2003, and will conclude October 18, 2003. (NASD Case #C07030043)

D.R. Mayo & Co., Inc. (CRD #8658, San Francisco, California) and Donald Richard Mayo (CRD #324176, Registered Principal, Piedmont, California) submitted an Offer of Settlement in which the firm was censured and fined $10,000, jointly and severally with Mayo. Mayo was barred from association with any NASD member in a principal or supervisory capacity. Your Discount Brokers, Inc. (CRD #25438, Boca Raton, Florida) and Michael Silverstein (CRD #2012130, Registered Principal, Coral Springs, Florida) submitted a Letter of Acceptance, Waiver, and Consent in which the firm was censured and fined $17,500. Silverstein was fined $75,000 and suspended from association with any NASD member in any capacity for two months. Without admitting or denying the allegations, the respondents consented to the described sanctions and to the entry of findings that Silverstein recklessly and/or intentionally entered priced day orders to buy 100 shares of stock into the order delivery and execution system of the firm's clearing firm at prices that Silverstein knew, or should have known, would improve the National Best Bid (NBB) for the stock, in that the full price and size of such order would be reflected in the public quotation stream as the best prices and sizes at which a market participant was willing to buy shares of the stock. The findings stated that the entering of such orders by Silverstein was manipulative, deceptive, and/or fraudulent conduct, and that he entered such orders at prices that were higher than the previous NBB for the stock within 2 to 28 seconds before the close of the trading day. NASD also found that each of the 29 priced orders that Silverstein entered to purchase shares of the company became the closing bid in the company, and, as a result of this conduct, Silverstein was able to cause market appreciation in his margin account at the firm in the aggregate amount of $251,553.13 and, by virtue of the manner in which the firm's clearing firm calculated margin liabilities, to decrease the amount of his margin exposure in his margin account. In addition, the findings stated that the firm failed to establish a supervisory system reasonably designed to achieve compliance with applicable securities laws and regulations concerning quotation and trading activity at or near the close of the trading day.

Silverstein's suspension began July 7, 2003, and will conclude September 6, 2003. (NASD Case #CMS030135)

The findings also stated that the firm failed to give notice of the changes to the original investors, failed to provide them with copies of the amendments, and failed to provide them an opportunity to reaffirm or rescind their purchases. (NASD Case #C07030039)

(CRD #13071, New York, New York) and Leslie Charles Quick, III (CRD #1079748, Registered Principal, Bernardsville, New Jersey) submitted a Letter of Acceptance, Waiver, and Consent in which they were censured and fined $75,000, jointly and severally. The findings also stated that the firm failed, within 90 seconds after execution, to transmit through ACT last-sale reports of transactions in OTC Equity and CQS securities and failed to designate through ACT such last-sale reports as late. Without admitting or denying the allegations, the firm consented to the described sanctions and to the entry of findings that as a market maker in securities, it caused a locked/crossed market condition prior to the market opening by entering a bid (ask) quotation that locked/crossed another market maker's quotations without immediately thereafter sending through SelectNet to the market maker(s) whose quote(s) it locked or crossed a Trade-or-Move message(s) that was at the receiving market maker's quoted price and whose aggregate size was at least 5,000 shares. The findings also stated that the firm was a party to a locked or crossed market condition prior to the market opening and received a Trade-or-Move message in each instance through SelectNet, and, within 30 seconds of receiving such messages, failed to fill the incoming Trade-or-Move message for the full size of the message or move its bid down (offer up) by a quotation increment that would have unlocked/uncrossed the market. (NASD Case #CMS030136)

Morgan Invest, LLC (CRD #1326, Boston, Massachusetts) submitted a Letter of Acceptance, Waiver, and Consent in which the firm was censured, fined $10,000, and required to revise its supervisory procedures concerning locked and crossed markets within 30 business days. Without admitting or denying the allegations, the firm consented to the described sanctions and to the entry of findings that it entered a priced order into an Electronic Communications Network (ECN) that was displayed in The NASDAQ Stock Market at a price that caused a locked or crossed market condition to occur in each instance, without making reasonable efforts to avoid a locked or crossed market by attempting to execute transactions with all market makers whose quotations would be locked or crossed. The findings also stated that the firm's supervisory system did not provide for supervision reasonably designed to achieve compliance with respect to the applicable securities laws and regulations concerning locked and crossed markets. (NASD Case #CMS030140)

The findings also stated that the firm was a registered market maker in securities, that an order was presented to the firm at the firm's published bid or published offer in an amount up to its published quotation size, and that the firm failed to execute the orders upon presentment and thereby failed to honor its published quotation. Furthermore, NASD found that the firm failed to show certain terms and conditions on the memorandum of brokerage orders in connection with orders received on the first day of secondary trading immediately following 12 initial public offerings (IPOs). (NASD Case #CMS030150)

Ladenburg, Thalmann & Company, Inc. (CRD #505, New York, New York) submitted a Letter of Acceptance, Waiver, and Consent in which the firm was censured; fined $92,500; required to pay $3,674.54, plus interest, in restitution to a public customer; and required to revise its written supervisory procedures concerning firm quote compliance, registration and qualifications of trading supervisors, order handling and execution, best execution of internal agency orders, anti-competitive practices, short sales, locked and crossed markets, Order Audit Trail SystemSM (OATSSM), record keeping, SEC Rule 15c2-11, and NASD Marketplace Rule 6740 within 30 business days.

Without admitting or denying the allegations, the firm consented to the described sanctions and to the entry of findings that, as a market maker in securities, an order was presented to the firm at the firm's published bid or published offer in an amount up to its published quotation size, and the firm failed to execute the orders upon presentment and thereby failed to honor its published quotation. The findings also stated that the firm, as a market maker in securities, was a party to a locked or crossed market condition prior to the market opening, received a Trade-or-Move message in each instance through SelectNet, and, within 30 seconds of receiving such messages, failed to fill the incoming Trade-or-Move message for the full size of the message or move its bid down (offer up) by a quotation increment that would have unlocked/uncrossed the market. NASD also found that the firm failed to contemporaneously or partially execute customer limit orders in NASDAQ securities after it traded each subject security for its own market-making account at a price that would have satisfied each customer's limit order; and the firm executed a short-sale transaction and failed to report the transaction to ACT with a short-sale modifier and as an exempt short sale.

Furthermore, the findings stated that the firm failed to accept or decline in ACT transactions in an eligible security within 20 minutes after execution; to report to ACT the correct symbol indicating whether the firm executed transactions in eligible securities in a principal or agency capacity; to correct execution time for transaction in an eligible security; and to correct the symbol indicating whether the transaction was a buy, sell, sell short, sell short exempt, or cross for transactions in eligible securities. In addition, NASD found that the firm incorrectly designated transactions as riskless to ACT and failed to submit, for the offsetting, "riskless" portion of "riskless" principal transaction(s) in CQS and OTCBB securities, either a clearing-only report with a capacity indicator of "riskless principal," or a non-tape, non-clearing report with a capacity indicator of "riskless principal." NASD also determined that the firm failed to display immediately the customer limit orders in NASDAQ securities in its public quotation, when each such order was at a price that would have improved the firm's bid or offer in each such security; or when the order was priced equal to the firm's bid or offer and the national best bid or offer in such security, and the size of the order represented more than a de minimis change in relation to the size associated with its bid or offer in each such security.

In addition, the findings stated that the firm failed to preserve for a period of not less than three years, with the first two being in an accessible place, the memorandum of seven brokerage orders, and failed to show the times of entry on the memorandum of six brokerage orders and on the volumes of multiple partial executions of a customer's order on the memorandum of two brokerage orders. NASD further found that, in transactions for or with a customer, the firm failed to use reasonable diligence to ascertain the best inter-dealer market, and failed to buy or sell in such market so that the resultant price to its customer was as favorable as possible under prevailing market conditions. The findings stated that the firm failed, within 90 seconds after execution, to transmit through ACT last-sale reports of transactions in NNM securities, failed to designate through ACT such last-sale reports as late, and failed to report through ACT last-sale reports of transactions and the correct price of the transaction in NNM securities. NASD also found that the firm published quotations for an OTC Equity Security, or, directly or indirectly, submitted such quotations for publication in a quotation medium and did not have in its records the documentation required by SEC Rule 15c2-11(a) ("paragraph (a) information"); did not have a reasonable basis under the circumstances for believing that the paragraph (a) information was accurate in all material respects; or did not have a reasonable basis under the circumstances for believing that the sources of the paragraph (a) information were reliable.

The findings also stated that the firm failed to file a Form 211 with NASD at least three business days before the firm's quotations were published or displayed in a quotation medium and failed to properly classify orders as "covered" or "not covered" for purposes of calculating its monthly data report pursuant to SEC Rule 11Ac1-5. In addition, NASD found that the firm's supervisory system did not provide for supervision reasonably designed to achieve compliance with applicable securities laws and regulations concerning firm quote compliance, registration and qualifications of trading supervisors, order handling and execution, best execution of internal agency orders, anti-competitive practices, short sales, locked and crossed markets, OATS, record keeping, SEC Rule 15c2-11, and NASD Marketplace Rule 6740. (NASD Case #CMS030153)

Without admitting or denying the allegations, the firm consented to the described sanctions and to the entry of findings that it failed, within 90 seconds after execution, to transmit through ACT last-sale reports of transactions in eligible securities. The findings also stated that the firm also incorrectly designated as ".SLD," through ACT, these last-sale reports of transactions in eligible securities reported to ACT within 90 seconds of execution. In addition, NASD found that the firm's supervisory system did not provide for supervision reasonably designed to achieve compliance with applicable securities laws and regulations concerning ACT trade reporting. (NASD Case #CMS030127)

Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Inc. (CRD #7691, New York, New York) submitted a Letter of Acceptance, Waiver, and Consent in which the firm was censured, fined $12,500, and required to revise its supervisory procedures concerning obtaining and documenting three quotations in non-NASDAQ securities within 30 days. Without admitting or denying the allegations, the firm consented to the described sanctions and to the entry of findings that in connection with transactions in non-NASDAQ securities, it failed to contact and obtain quotations from three dealers to determine the best inter-dealer market for each subject security. The findings stated that the firm failed to display immediately customer limit orders in NASDAQ securities in its public quotation, when each such order was at a price that would have improved the firm's bid or offer in each such security; or when the order was priced equal to the firm's bid or offer and the national best bid or offer for each such security, and the size of the order represented more than a de minimis change in relation to the size associated with the firm's bid or offer in each such security. In addition, NASD found that the firm's supervisory system did not provide for supervision reasonably designed to achieve compliance with applicable securities laws and regulations concerning obtaining and documenting three quotations in non-NASDAQ securities. The findings also stated that the firm transmitted to OATS execution reports that contained inaccurate, incomplete, or improperly formatted data, and submitted to OATS Reportable Order Events (ROEs) with respect to equity securities traded on The NASDAQ Stock Market that were not in the electronic form prescribed by NASD. (NASD Case #C8A030049)

Without admitting or denying the allegations, the firm consented to the described sanctions and to the entry of findings that, as a market maker in the securities, without making reasonable efforts to avoid a locked or crossed market by executing transactions with all market makers whose quotations would be locked or crossed, it entered bid or ask quotations in The NASDAQ Stock Market, which caused a locked or crossed market condition to occur in each instance. NASD found that an order was presented to the firm at the firm's published bid or published offer in an amount up to its published quotation size, and the firm failed to execute the orders upon presentment and thereby failed to honor its published quotation. The findings also stated that the firm caused a locked/crossed market condition prior to the market opening by entering a bid (ask) quotation that locked/crossed another market maker's quotations without immediately thereafter sending through SelectNet, to the market maker(s) whose quotes it locked or crossed, a Trade-or-Move message(s) that was at the receiving market maker's quoted price and whose aggregate size was at least 5,000 shares.

In addition, the findings stated that the firm was a party to a locked or crossed market condition prior to the market opening, and received a Trade-or-Move message in each instance through SelectNet and within 30 seconds of receiving such messages, failed to fill the incoming Trade-or-Move message for the full size of the message or move its bid down (offer up) by a quotation increment that would have unlocked/uncrossed the market. NASD further found that the firm transmitted to OATS reports that contained inaccurate, incomplete, or improperly formatted data; specifically, these reports omitted the Account Type Code. (NASD Case #CMS030155)

The sanctions were based on findings that Adler had a personal account with his member firm in which he traded equities. The findings stated that Adler's firm imposed a 90-day restriction on Adler's account, and that while the restriction was in effect, Adler was not allowed to make a purchase in his account unless a principal of his member firm had confirmed that Adler had enough money in his account to pay for the trade. - ♦ The procedures requiring the prior approval of the Designated Supervisory Employee (DSE) or branch manager before the sale of restricted stock before associated persons of the firm could open an account with other NASD members, and before registered representatives could direct customers to investment opportunities that were not sponsored by the firm; but the procedures designated an individual as DSE who was not functioning in that capacity, and did not identify the person who had responsibility for functioning in the capacity of DSE or branch manager, who in fact was Kowalski;
- ♦ The sale of restricted stock;
- ♦ Suitability of transactions;
- ♦ Transactions for or by associated persons; and
- ♦ Private securities transactions, in that the procedures failed to define what was meant by "directing customers" or "sponsored by the firm."

In addition, the findings stated that Kowalski failed to enforce the firm's written supervisory procedures regarding private securities transactions by permitting a registered representative to effect securities transactions off the books and records of his member firm. (NASD Case #C8A030052)

Thomas Donald Krosschell (CRD #1010632, Registered Representative, Eden Prairie, Minnesota) submitted an Offer of Settlement in which he was fined $60,000, suspended from association with any NASD member in any capacity for 18 months, and barred from association with any NASD member as a principal or supervisor. The findings also stated that after the company publicly announced that it was negotiating a merger, the price of the stock increased significantly, and shortly thereafter Krosschell sold his stock from his member firm account and realized a profit. The findings further stated that Krosschell, for his direct or indirect personal benefit or as a gift, knowingly breached a fiduciary or similar duty of trust and confidence to the company and/or his member firm by disclosing, directly or indirectly to others, material nonpublic information regarding merger discussions between two companies.

Krosschell's suspension began August 4, 2003, and will conclude at the close of business February 3, 2005. (NASD Case #CMS020143)

Without admitting or denying the allegations, Laney consented to the described sanctions and to the entry of findings that, while conducting a branch office audit of one of her firm's offsite registered representatives, she failed to review the branch office's checking account despite the fact that she was using an office examination checklist that contained specific inquiries about the branch office checking account which would have revealed a $2.6 million fraudulent Ponzi scheme by a registered representative. The findings also stated that Laney allowed a representative to "voluntarily" resign without disclosing that the representative was under investigation for possible selling away, misappropriation of customer funds, and acting as a clearing firm.

Laney's suspension began July 21, 2003, and will conclude at the close of business August 29, 2003. (NASD Case #C06030012)

Jeffrey Anthony Malfetti (CRD #2451948, Registered Representative, Warren, New Jersey) submitted a Letter of Acceptance, Waiver, and Consent in which he was fined $20,000 and suspended from association with any NASD member in any capacity for 31 days. Without admitting or denying the allegations, Malfetti consented to the described sanctions and to the entry of findings that he was a trader responsible for executing his member firm's transactions in a common stock. The findings also stated that Malfetti, acting on behalf of his member firm, received two market-on-open orders to sell 70,900 shares of common stock and one market-on-open order to buy 4,791 shares, resulting in a sell imbalance of 66,109 shares to be executed at the opening price. The findings also stated that, prior to the market open, his member firm received a SelectNet order to buy 3,000 shares of common stock at $15.12 per share, a price below his member firm's then current offer of $15.35 per share. In addition, Malfetti, on behalf of his member firm, partially executed 100 shares of the pending SelectNet order at which time his member firm's published offer of $15.26 per share represented the inside offer. The trade was reported to ACT and was the first unmodified trade at or after the open during normal business hours, thereby constituting the opening price. NASD found that the partial execution at an inferior price to his member firm's quote caused the opening price of common stock to be artificially reduced. Furthermore, the findings stated that Malfetti executed its market-on-open orders to sell 6,800 shares and 64,100 shares at $15.12 per share and its market-on-open order to buy 4,791 shares at $15.12 per share.

Malfetti's suspension began July 21, 2003, and will conclude at the close of business August 20, 2003. (NASD Case #CMS030132)

The fine must be paid and proof of payment of financial benefits must be made before Maxfield reassociates with any NASD member following the suspension or before requesting relief from any statutory disqualification. Without admitting or denying the allegations, Maxfield consented to the described sanctions and to the entry of finding that he offered for sale and sold to public customers securities that were neither registered pursuant to Section 5 of the Securities Act of 1933 nor exempt from registration thereunder. The findings also stated that Maxfield permitted persons who were not registered with his member firm to offer and sell these securities to public customers, and failed to obtain information required by NASD Rule 3110 with respect to certain purchasers of securities.

Maxfield's suspension began July 21, 2003, and will conclude at the close of business July 20, 2004. (NASD Case #C3A030023)

Without admitting or denying the allegations, McBride consented to the described sanction and to the entry of findings that he failed to establish, maintain, and enforce a supervisory system and written supervisory procedures reasonably designed to achieve compliance with applicable securities laws, regulations, and NASD rules regarding:

- ♦ The procedures requiring the prior approval of the Designated Supervisory Employee (DSE) or branch manager before the sale of restricted stock, before associated persons of his firm could open an account with other NASD members, and before registered representatives could direct customers to investment opportunities that were not sponsored by his firm, but the procedures designated an individual as DSE who was not functioning in that capacity, and did not identify the person who had responsibility for functioning in the capacity of DSE or branch manager;
- ♦ The sale of restricted stock, in that McBride knew or should have known that a registered representative was participating in the sale of restricted stock without the prior approval of any supervisory principal at his firm;
- ♦ Transactions for or by associated persons, in that McBride knew, or should have known, that his firm's registered representatives had opened accounts at other NASD member firms without first obtaining the prior written approval of any supervisory principal at his firm; and
- ♦ Private securities transactions, in that the procedures failed to define what was meant by "directing customers" or "sponsored by the firm," and the supervisory system was such that McBride knew, or should have known, that his firm's representatives were in fact directing customers to investment opportunities that were not sponsored by the firm and participating in private securities transactions without the prior written approval of any supervisory principal at his firm.

In addition, the findings stated that McBride failed to enforce his firm's written supervisory procedures regarding private securities transactions by permitting a registered representative to effect securities transactions off the books and records of the firm. (NASD Case #C8A030051)

Padraig Conrad McGlynn (CRD #2983783, Registered Representative, Maspeth, New York) was barred from association with any NASD member in any capacity. The sanction was based on findings that McGlynn sent false documents to a public customer in that he signed and forwarded to the customer a letter with an enclosed document that McGlynn's letter described as a "Temporary Confirmation." NASD found that prior to sending the letter, McGlynn used a computer to create what appeared to be a letterhead for a company unrelated to his member firm and which was not associated with NASD, and used this letterhead on the letter and the Temporary Confirmation. In addition, the findings stated that the Temporary Confirmation falsely represented that the customer had agreed to purchase shares of stock and that shares had been purchased for the customer through his member firm when in fact the customer had not agreed to such a purchase, McGlynn had not placed an order to purchase the shares for the customer, and no such transactions had taken place. The fine must be paid before Olsen reassociates with any NASD member following the suspension or before requesting relief from any statutory disqualification. Without admitting or denying the allegations, Olsen consented to the described sanctions and to the entry of findings that he failed to disclose material facts on his Form U4.

Olsen's suspension began August 4, 2003, and will conclude at the close of business September 3, 2003. (NASD Case #C04030035)

John Douglas Parsons (CRD #2038288, Registered Representative, Madisonville, Louisiana) was barred from association with any NASD member in any capacity. The sanction was based on findings that Parsons requested and obtained from his member firm checks totaling $893,700 to withdraw funds from the accounts of public customers without their knowledge or consent, endorsed the checks, and deposited them in a bank account he controlled thereby converting the funds to his own use and benefit. NASD also found that Parsons failed to respond to NASD requests for information. (NASD Case #C05030005)

Richard Armand Patenaude (CRD# 4069526, Registered Representative, Fort Washington, Maryland) submitted a Letter of Acceptance, Waiver, and Consent in which he was fined $10,000, ordered to disgorge commissions of $23,312.15 and pay that amount as restitution to a public customer, and suspended from association with any NASD member in any capacity for two years. The fine and restitution must be paid before Patenaude reassociates with any NASD member following the suspension or before requesting relief from any statutory disqualification. Without admitting or denying the allegations, Patenaude consented to the described sanctions and to the entry of finding that he signed a customer's name on an insurance company variable annuity application he completed without the customer's knowledge or authorization. The findings also stated that Patenaude did not notify anyone at his member firm that he had signed the customer's name on the application. NASD also found that Patenaude thereupon, without the customer's knowledge or authorization, submitted the application to the insurance company, causing a variable annuity to be purchased with funds that were in the customer's account at his member firm.

Patenaude's suspension began August 4, 2003, and will conclude at the close of business August 3, 2005. (NASD Case #C9A030022)

David Lee Pearlman (CRD #1561050, Registered Representative, Hawthorne Woods, Illinois) submitted a Letter of Acceptance, Waiver, and Consent in which he was fined $10,000 and suspended from association with any NASD member in any capacity for six months. Without admitting or denying the allegations, Pearlman consented to the described sanctions and to the entry of findings that he failed to give prior written notice of his intention to engage in private securities transactions to his member firm, and failed to receive written approval from his firm prior to engaging in such activities.

Pearlman's suspension began July 21, 2003, and will conclude at the close of business January 20, 2004. (NASD Case #C8A030050)

Keith Edward Pelatowski (CRD #3129223, Registered Representative, East Haven, Connecticut) submitted a Letter of Acceptance, Waiver, and Consent in which he was barred from association with any NASD member firm in any capacity. Without admitting or denying the allegations, Pelatowski consented to the described sanctions and to the entry of findings that he signed customer names to various forms without authorization. The findings also stated that Pelatowski failed to respond to NASD requests for information. (NASD Case #C11030021)

Jeffrey Scott Piek (CRD #3207495, Registered Representative, Loveland, Ohio) was barred from association with any NASD member in any capacity. The sanction was based on findings that Piek forged the names of existing public customers to financial advisory service agreements without the customers' knowledge or consent. The findings also stated that Piek forged the signatures of public customers to Mutual Fund and Certificate Redemption, Exchange and/or Transfer forms to withdraw $500 from each account to pay the financial planning fee due under the forged financial planning agreements, and then withdrew $500 from each account without the customers' knowledge or consent. (NASD Case #C8B030003)

Joseph John Piscopo (CRD #2221826, Registered Representative, Staten Island, New York) and Peter Laurella (CRD #2386054, Registered Representative, Staten Island, New York) were barred from association with any NASD member in any capacity. The sanctions were based on findings that they knowingly and deceptively devised and participated in a scheme whereby they caused the purchase of securities in the accounts of public customers without the knowledge, authorization, or consent of the customers, together receiving discretionary bonus payments of approximately $60,000 based in part on the unauthorized trades. The findings also stated that Piscopo and Laurella failed to respond to NASD requests to appear for on-the-record interviews. (NASD Case #CAF020065)

Jeffrey Allen Richardson (CRD #736249, Registered Principal, Columbus, Ohio) submitted a Letter of Acceptance, Waiver, and Consent in which he was barred from association with any NASD member in any capacity. Without admitting or denying the allegations, Richardson consented to the described sanction and to the entry of findings that he willfully participated in and facilitated an unlawful, unregistered sale of shares of stock from company accounts at his member firm to customers of another member firm through means of interstate commerce, generating profits for his member firm. NASD found that Richardson wired funds from the company accounts directly to a New York bank account in the name of the stock at the instruction of a company contact. The findings also stated that Richardson failed to conduct any inquiry as to the sources of the shares deposited into the accounts. If he had done so, he would have discovered that individuals were acting as underwriters or control persons in an unregistered distribution of shares of stock on behalf of the issuer. (NASD Case #CMS030156)

Albert Lee Rosebush (CRD #1213100, Registered Representative, Mishawaka, Indiana) submitted a Letter of Acceptance, Waiver, and Consent in which he was fined $7,500 and suspended from association with any NASD member firm in any capacity for six weeks. Without admitting or denying the Hoes (CRD #1962908, Registered Principal, Mahwah, New Jersey) submitted a Letter of Acceptance, Waiver, and Consent in which they were fined $50,000, jointly and severally, and each suspended from association with any NASD member in any principal or supervisory capacity for four months. Without admitting or denying the allegations, Santangelo and Hoes consented to the described sanctions and to the entry of findings that they aided and abetted the preparation and filing of false and misleading FOCUS reports and books and records by their member firm by entering into agreements with another NASD member firm that enabled their member firm to falsely, or deceptively, report or reflect the other firm's net capital on their firm's FOCUS reports and other financial documents. The findings also stated that a member firm, acting through Santangelo and Hoes, conducted a securities business when its net capital declined below the minimum amount required by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC).

Santangelo's and Hoes' suspensions will begin September 2, 2003, and will conclude January 1, 2004. (NASD Case #C10030049)

Michael Court Scanlon (CRD #412027, Registered Representative, Columbus, Ohio) submitted a Letter of Acceptance, Waiver, and Consent in which he was fined $5,000 and suspended from association with any NASD member in any capacity for six months. The fine must be paid before Scanlon reassociates with any NASD member following the suspension or before requesting relief from any statutory disqualification. Without admitting or denying the allegations, Scanlon consented to the described sanctions and to the entry of findings that he engaged in private securities transactions without prior written notice to, and approval from his member firm.

Without admitting or denying the allegations, Stewart consented to the described sanctions and to the entry of findings that he informed public customers that he would guarantee them against any losses in their securities investments, which he put in writing, and he signed the guarantee.

Stewart's suspension will begin August 18, 2003, and will conclude at the close of business August 29, 2003. (NASD Case #C02030040)

Mark Horace Love (CRD #1268245, Registered Representative, Scottsdale, Arizona) was fined $25,000 and suspended from association with any NASD member in any capacity for 30 business days. Thomas Andrew Timberlake (CRD #870022, Registered Principal, Tampa, Florida) was fined $25,000, suspended from association with any NASD member in any capacity for two years, and ordered to offer rescission by purchasing, at the original purchase price, the Certificates of Deposit (CDs) he sold to, and which are still held by, public customers. J. Alexander Securities, Inc. (CRD #7809, Los Angeles, California) and James Alexander (CRD #2762, Registered Principal, Los Angeles, California). Alexander was fined $200,000, suspended from association with any NASD member in any capacity for two years, and ordered to requalify by exam as a principal. The suspension as a principal will continue until he has requalified as a principal by exam. The sanctions against the firm and Alexander were based on findings that the firm and Alexander failed to establish and maintain an adequate supervisory system to detect and deter the misconduct of a registered representative.

The firm and Alexander appealed the findings and sanctions, and the Department of Enforcement cross-appealed as to the sanctions. The sanctions are not in effect pending consideration of the appeal by NASD's NAC. (NASD Case #CAF010021)

Complaints Filed

The following complaints were issued by NASD. Issuance of a disciplinary complaint represents the initiation of a formal proceeding by NASD in which findings as to the allegations in the complaint have not been made, and does not represent a decision as to any of the allegations contained in the complaint. Because these complaints are unadjudicated, you may wish to contact the respondents before drawing any conclusions regarding the allegations in the complaint.

Jonathan B. Abrams (CRD #2052573, Registered Principal, River Edge, New Jersey) was named as a respondent in an NASD complaint alleging that he failed and neglected to insure that municipal securities transactions executed by his member firm were executed at prices that were fair and reasonable. The complaint also alleged that Abrams failed and neglected to establish, maintain, and enforce his member firm's written supervisory procedures, which would insure that municipal security sales prices were fair and reasonable in accordance with MSRB Rule G-30. (NASD Case #C9B030043)

John Steven Blount (CRD #2253398, Registered Representative, Lake Charles, Louisiana) was named as a respondent in an NASD complaint alleging that he made recommendations for public customers that were unsuitable in view of the customers' investment objectives, income, low risk tolerance, need for liquidity and income, and interest in preserving principal. The complaint also alleges that Blount knowingly and recklessly misrepresented material features of the contracts to fraudulently induce the customers' purchases in that he provided the customers with written "proposals" that omitted material facts, contained unwarranted claims, and were misleading. The complaint further alleges that Blount directed his sales assistant to record inaccurately the customers' financial situation and investment objective information on a section of the annuity application designated as the "Client Profile" form, which is used by Blount's firm to review the suitability of investment recommendations and sales. In addition, the complaint alleges that Blount participated in a private securities transaction without providing prior written notice to his member firm. (NASD Case #C05030034)

Larry Joseph Bolden (CRD #2073064, Registered Representative, Austin, Texas) was named as a respondent in an NASD complaint alleging that he signed the name of a public customer to letters of authorization, thereby causing the transfer of $23,466 from the customer's account to accounts under his control without the customer's authorization, knowledge, or consent. The complaint also alleges that Bolden directed that $23,466 of a customer's funds be transferred to account(s) he controlled and used the funds for his own benefit without the customer's authorization, knowledge, or consent. In addition, the complaint alleges that Bolden failed to respond to NASD requests for information. (NASD Case #C06030010)

Mario Lucas Chavez (CRD #4082977, Registered Representative, Albuquerque, New Mexico) was named as a respondent in an NASD complaint alleging that he received $22,103.24 from a public customer intended for investment. The complaint alleges that Chavez delivered the $16,053.24 check to his member firm, directed the office staff to apply $11,000 to the purchase of a fixed annuity and to issue a $5,053.24 check payable to his member firm's clearing firm, and took possession of the check payable to the clearing firm and deposited it into a securities account in his name with his member firm. Furthermore, the complaint alleges that Chavez failed to invest the proceeds of the check payable to the clearing firm and the cash he received from the customer for the customer's benefit, and, instead, retained possession of these funds and used them for his own personal use and benefit. In addition, the complaint alleges that Chavez prepared an account statement, or caused it to be prepared, and delivered it to the customer in order to conceal from the customer that he had taken the funds and used them for his personal benefit. The complaint also alleges that Chavez failed to respond to NASD requests for information. (NASD Case #C3A030025)

Patrick Troy Fanning (CRD #4051410, Registered Representative, Mechanicsville, Maryland) was named as a respondent in an NASD complaint alleging that he withdrew at least $22,380 from the accounts of public customers for his own use and benefit. The complaint also alleges that Fanning withdrew $22,292.96 from the accounts of public customers without their knowledge, authorization, or consent, and deposited the funds into the accounts of the customers from which he had withdrawn $22,380, thereby misusing customer funds. In addition, the complaint alleges that Fanning failed to respond to NASD requests to appear for an on-the-record interview. (NASD Case #C10030045)

Robert Cowan Hess (CRD #2871722, Registered Representative, South Amboy, New Jersey) and Russell Wayne Miller (CRD #3219969, Registered Representative, Cibola, Texas) were named as respondents in an NASD complaint alleging that they recommended purchase and sale transactions in various securities to a public customer without having reasonable grounds for believing that such transactions were suitable for the customer in light of the size of the transactions, the customer's financial situation, investment objectives, needs, and/or the nature of the securities. (NASD Case #C9B030041)

Anthony Koulouris (CRD #3011289, Registered Representative, Carle Place, New York) was named as a respondent in an NASD complaint alleging that he effected, or caused to be effected, a transaction in the account of a public customer without the customer's knowledge, authorization, or consent. The complaint also alleges that Koulouris failed to testify truthfully during an NASD on-the-record interview and failed to respond to NASD requests for information. In addition, the complaint alleges that Koulouris failed to disclose material information on his Form U4. (NASD Case #C10030042)

George Arthur Murphy, Jr. (CRD #1036919, Registered Principal, Havertown, Pennsylvania) was named as a respondent in an NASD complaint alleging that in connection with the purchase or sale of securities, he knowingly or recklessly effected transactions in, or induced the purchase or sale of, securities by means of manipulative, deceptive or other fraudulent devices or contrivances. The complaint also alleges that Murphy engaged in the short-term purchase and sale of securities in accounts of public customers and did not have a reasonable basis for believing that such transactions were suitable for the customers based upon the frequency of the transactions, the nature of their accounts, and their financial situation, and needs. In addition the complaint alleges that Murphy exercised discretion in the accounts of public customers without having obtained prior written authorization from the customers and prior written acceptance of these accounts as discretionary by his member firm. (NASD Case #C9A030023)

Northport, New York) were named as respondents in an NASD complaint alleging that the firm, acting through Cassese and other representatives, effected transactions in highly liquid securities as either principal or agent and charged excessive markups, markdowns, and commissions. The complaint also alleges that the firm and Cassese failed to maintain and enforce a supervisory system with regard to charges to customers that was reasonably designed to achieve compliance with NASD rules to prevent charging customers excessive amounts for transactions. NASD Charges Sisung Securities with Wrongfully Receiving Over $2 Million in Underwriting Fees in 21 Municipal Bond Offerings

NASD has charged Sisung Securities Corp. of New Orleans, La., and its owner, Lawrence J. Sisung, Jr., with violating securities rules by participating in 21 municipal bond offerings in which the firm was not eligible to participate due to political contributions to members of the Louisiana State Bond Commission.

The NASD complaint alleges that from 1998 through 2001, Sisung made 14 political contributions, through entities that he controlled, of almost $17,000 to members of the Louisiana State Bond Commission. MSRB (Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board) Rule G-37 prohibited Sisung's brokerage firm from participating in any municipal business approved by the Louisiana State Bond Commission for two years from the date of each contribution. However, Sisung Securities failed to follow this restriction and improperly participated in 21 Louisiana bond issues, earning more than $2.1 million in municipal underwriting fees.

In addition, NASD charged that Sisung Securities failed to report political contributions of over $44,000, which includes the $17,000, as required by MSRB rules, and failed to keep required records of such contributions.

The MSRB is the self-regulatory organization charged with primary rulemaking authority for the municipal securities activities of brokers and dealers. NASD enforces the rules of the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board.

Under NASD rules, an individual named in a complaint can file a response and request a hearing before an NASD disciplinary panel. Possible sanctions include a fine, order to pay restitution, censure, suspension, or bar from the securities industry.

NASD Brings Enforcement Action For Class B Mutual Fund Share Sales Abuses And Issues Investor Alert on Class B Shares

NASD has censured and fined McLaughlin, Piven, Vogel Securities, Inc. (MPV) and its Chairman a total of $100,000 for supervisory violations and unsuitable sales of Class B shares of mutual funds, and directed restitution of approximately $90,000 to customers. Additionally, NASD suspended MPV's Chairman James C. McLaughlin for a period of 30 business days in his capacity as a principal.

Today's action is part of a larger, ongoing focus of NASD on the sale of Class B mutual fund shares. In the last two years NASD has brought more than half a dozen significant enforcement cases involving sales violations of Class B shares.

NASD has also released an alert to investors about the expenses involved in purchasing Class B mutual fund shares and how to determine which share class may be appropriate. The alert, Class B Mutual Fund Shares: Do They Make the Grade? can be found at www.nasdr.com/alert_classb_funds.htm. The alert also includes an expense analyzer that allows comparisons between two funds or classes of funds at one time, tells investors where the fees fall compared to industry averages, and highlights when investors should look for breakpoint discounts. Using NASD's Mutual Fund Expense Analyzer, investors can calculate and compare the expenses of Class A, B, or C shares or any other shares class offered.

"Today's enforcement action puts brokers on notice that investors must be sold an appropriate class of mutual fund, and our Investor Alert gives investors the tools to educate themselves about the costs involved when purchasing Class B shares," said Mary L. Schapiro, NASD Vice Chairman and President of Regulatory Policy and Oversight. "The information in today's alert allows investors to better protect themselves when purchasing mutual funds."

In the enforcement action, NASD found that from June 1998 through May 2002, MPV violated NASD's suitability rules by recommending purchases of large volumes of Class B shares of mutual funds in the accounts of 21 MPV customers totaling approximately $9.3 million. The large purchases of Class B shares deprived customers of the lower or potentially lower sales charges available through Class A shares of the same funds.

While Class A shares typically involve a front-end sales charge, these fund shares also typically incur lower ongoing charges and there is no contingent deferred sales charge upon the sale of the shares. Class B mutual fund shares generally do not incur a front-end sales charge, but generally are subject to higher ongoing charges and a contingent deferred sales charge upon the sale of shares.

In one instance, a broker recommended the purchase of Class B shares of mutual funds in four different fund families for a single customer's account in lieu of the less costly Class A shares. The positions accumulated in these shares in each of the fund families ranged from $375,000 to $650,000.

NASD also found that MPV and its Chairman and supervisory principal, James C. McLaughlin, failed to establish, maintain, and enforce an adequate supervisory system that would have detected and prevented the unsuitable large Class B share positions.

In settling this matter, MPV and McLaughlin neither admitted nor denied the allegations, but consented to the entry of findings. MPV also agreed to hire an independent consultant to review and recommend revisions to its supervisory system in connection with its investment company securities business.

NASD Files Enforcement Actions Involving Unsuitable Sales of Mutual Funds

NASD has announced five new enforcement actions as part of its ongoing focus on the sale of Class B mutual fund shares. Four of these cases are settlements in which the individuals agreed to suspensions from the securities industry for up to nine months, and fines totaling almost $120,000. The fifth action is a complaint where the broker is contesting the charges.

In each of the settled cases, the brokers violated NASD's suitability rule by recommending their customers purchase of B share mutual funds instead of A shares. The purchase of A shares would have eliminated or reduced front-end sales charges through breakpoint discounts available at various dollar amounts; resulted lower ongoing expenses than those available through B shares; and would have avoided the contingent deferred sales charges associated with B shares. The differences between A and B share mutual funds are explained more fully in an Investor Alert recently published by NASD: Investor Alert - Class B Mutual Fund Shares: Do They Make the Grade? (http://www.nasd.com/Investor/Alerts/alert_classb_funds.htm).

"In recommending mutual funds with different classes to investors, the broker must put his customer first. It is critical that a broker consider the costs of A shares versus B shares for the customer, and not the profit for the broker," said Mary L. Schapiro, NASD Vice Chairman and President of Regulatory Policy and Oversight. "NASD will continue to bring sales practice cases such as these when investors are sold mutual fund products that are unsuitable."

The cases announced today are:

Qimat R. Goyal, associated with Marsco Investment Corp., of Roseland, NJ, was fined $48,346 and suspended for nine months for unsuitable mutual fund B share recommendations to five customers.

Keith Korch, associated with Tucker Anthony, Inc.'s Sturbridge, MA office, was fined $60,000 and suspended for 30 days for recommending the purchase of $3.5 million of mutual fund B shares to a customer. Given the dollar amount invested, the investor would have been able to purchase the A shares without any up-front sales charge.
